

BOOK REVIEW 2: 9/15/23

Learning Target – RL8.3: Analyzing Narratives: *Analyze how specific events or dialogue in a literary text (novel) affect the development of the story (plot) to propel the action.

Title of Book: *Type here:	Did you split your book in half/thirds? Yes or No	Did you finish your book on time? Yes or No
	*Type here:	*Type here:

Directions:

1. Complete a Bibliographic Entry over your book. If you don't have your book with you, look up what you can and leave the parts you don't have blank.
2. Write a paragraph for each of the following prompts. In Book Reviews, paragraphs can be any length you need them to be, as long as you sufficiently answer each of the following prompts about your novel. Remember, DETAIL IS IMPORTANT!

Any place that highlighted in yellow with a star is required*

-Hit "Turn In" when you are finished!

MLA Bibliographic Entry Template:

Author Last Name, Author First Name. Title of Book. City of Publication:

Publisher, Year. Print.

MLA Bibliographic Entry over my book -use the template above to help you!

Type YOUR bibliographic entry below:

Paragraph 1: Explain the exposition in your novel – who are the characters? Where are they (what are the major settings?), what is the HINT of conflict?

Type paragraph 1 here:

Paragraph 2: Explain one major conflict (problem) in the RISING ACTION in your novel, specifically discussing how this conflict creates action in the story. Think of the conflict that is the driving force of the plot.

Questions to consider: What type of conflict is it? C vs. C, C vs. S, C vs. F/N, Internal? Who does it affect? What happens to the character(s) due to this conflict?

Type paragraph 2 here:

Paragraph 3: Resolution/ending of book. How has everything wrapped up? What is happening with the characters at the end? How did the conflict end (if at all)?

If you split it in half: Describe what is happening at the halfway point. What's happening with the characters currently? What is happening with the conflict? What do you predict will happen next?

If you did not finish your book on time: Leave this blank until you finish the book! Don't forget to come back and finish this for a higher score!

Type Paragraph 3 here:

